Book Reception

Saturday, December 8, 2007—11:00 A.M.-1:00 P.M.

The Indiana Historical Bureau Book Shop is hosting three well-known Hoosier authors—Rita T. Kohn, James W. Brown, and Ralph D. Gray—on Saturday, December 8 from 11:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. in the Indiana State Library and Historical Building at 315 West Ohio Street in downtown Indianapolis. Recently released books by Kohn, Brown, and Gray will be sold at 20% off list price. Free parking will be available on the state surface lot between Ohio and New York Streets, with entry from Capitol Avenue.

Visit the Historical Bureau website at www.IN.gov/history or call 317-232-2535 to place pre-orders. There will be limited book quantities at the reception.

Rita T. Kohn, Adjunct Professor of Journalism at IUPUI and senior writer for NUVO, and James W. Brown, Executive Associate Dean and director of the journalism program at Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis, will be on hand to sign their recently released book, Long Journey Home: Oral Histories of Contemporary Delaware Indians, a culmination of several years of work (list price $34.95, cloth).

Ralph D. Gray, Emeritus Professor of History at Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis has authored many books on Indiana history. Gray's latest publications, A Meredith Nicholson Reader is an anthology of Nicholson's writings, (list price $21.99, paper), and Meredith Nicholson: A Writing Life is the first-ever biography of the Hoosier writer and diplomat (list price $19.95, cloth).

A special display of Brown's powerful photographs of Delaware Indians will be available during the event. A continuous showing of the WFYI video, Long Journey Home: The Delawares of Indiana will be presented (sale price $5.00, VHS). The Marion County Historical Society will provide a display on Meredith Nicholson. All books in the Indiana Historical Bureau Book Shop will be 20% off during the month of December.
